THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE DOCTORATE OF DIVINITY AND THE DOCTORATE OF THEOLOGY DEGREES

Doctorate of Divinity Degree

A Master of Divinity Degree is mainly for those who desire to be ministers of teachers. This type of degree focuses upon the issues and concerns that come along with the usual activities of the ministry along with pastoral counseling and teaching. This degree will educate you on topics related to providing services for your congregation and is designed for ministers and teachers who wish to gain a fuller understanding of their responsibilities in these roles and how to best perform the duties related to these roles.

Doctorate of Theology Degree

The Master of Theology degree is a degree program will cause the student to be engrossed in the study from a more personal spiritual perspective as opposed to focusing on how to provide services for the congregation. This program is designed for those who have interest in the research and more academic side of spiritual learning as opposed to those who work in the ministry.

PROPHETIC MINISTRY

God has appointed prophets in the Church – men and women through whom He speaks and who declare and interpret His Divine Will to instruct, comfort, encourage and stimulate those with ears to hear. Prophets are one of the gifts that our Lord gave to His Church to help prepare and equip Believers to serve and to build The Body of The Messiah. The Gift of Prophecy appears in all three lists of Spiritual Gifts in The New Covenant. Prophecy is God's idea.

Prophecy involves hearing what God is saying and seeing what He is doing, then declaring and interpreting that in order to instruct, comfort, encourage and stimulate God's people. Therefore, the prophetic ministry must begin with an intimate relationship with The Lord in which the prophet clearly and consistently hears God's Voice. Since God's current, spoken Rhema Word will never contradict His Eternal, Written Logos Word, it is imperative that the prophet has a deep, living knowledge of the whole Counsel of God as revealed throughout The Scriptures.

The prophet must speak out of The Holy Spirit Who lives within his spirit and flow with The Anointing, so an understanding of these skills will be explored in the Prophetic Ministry program. The prophet is just one member of this group of Gifts that was given to The Body of The Messiah, so the relationship between the various Gifts and roles will also be examined. There is more than one way for the prophetic call to be released, and The Lord wants to use all of the uniqueness that is "you" to express and reveal Himself, His Character and His Love for His people.
